People	doc1.txt doc2.txt doc3.txt doc4.txt doc5.txt doc6.txt	In the face of a politics that's shut you out, that's told you to settle, that's divided us for too long, you believe we can be one people, reaching for what's possible, building that more perfect union. Tonight, I say to the American people, to Democrats and Republicans and Independents across this great land - enough! This moment - this election - is our chance to keep, in the 21st century, the American promise alive. It's a time where you can go to any town hall or street corner or coffee shop and hear people express the same anxiety about the future; hear them convey the same uncertainty about the direction we're headed as a country. To begin with, I discovered the warmth and sense of community that the people of Kenya possess - their sense of hopefulness even in the face of great difficulty. In each case, what has been required to meet the challenges we face has been good judgment and clear vision from our leaders, and a fundamental seriousness and engagement on the part of the American people ? Now, few people understand these challenges better than the co-founder of the Cooperative Threat Reduction Program, Dick Lugar, and this is something that became particularly clear to me during one incident on the trip.
Country	doc1.txt doc2.txt doc3.txt doc4.txt doc5.txt	It's humbling, but in my heart I know you didn't come here just for me, you came here because you believe in what this country can be. It is that promise that has always set this country apart - that through hard work and sacrifice, each of us can pursue our individual dreams but still come together as one American family, to ensure that the next generation can pursue their dreams as well. It's a time where you can go to any town hall or street corner or coffee shop and hear people express the same anxiety about the future; hear them convey the same uncertainty about the direction we're headed as a country. His ideas about how Kenya should progress often put him at odds with the politics of tribe and patronage, and because he spoke his mind, sometimes to a fault, he ended up being fired from his job and prevented from finding work in the country for many, many years. That policy-by-slogan will no longer pass as an acceptable form of debate in this country.

America	doc1.txt doc2.txt doc3.txt doc4.txt doc5.txt	And I accepted the job, sight unseen, motivated then by a single, simple, powerful idea - that I might play a small part in building a better America. Four years ago, I stood before you and told you my story - of the brief union between a young man from Kenya and a young woman from Kansas who weren't well-off or well-known, but shared a belief that in America, their son could achieve whatever he put his mind to. Thank you Roger Hickey and Bob Borosage for bringing us all together today and thank you for your leadership in the cause of a more progressive America. As I said at the outset, I did not know my father well - he returned to Kenya from America when I was still young. And a report by our own intelligence agencies has concluded that al Qaeda is successfully using the war in Iraq to recruit a new generation of terrorists for its war on America.
Because	doc1.txt doc2.txt doc3.txt doc4.txt doc5.txt doc6.txt	It's humbling, but in my heart I know you didn't come here just for me, you came here because you believe in what this country can be. Because for two hundred and thirty two years, at each moment when that promise was in jeopardy, ordinary men and women - students and soldiers, farmers and teachers, nurses and janitors -- found the courage to keep it alive. First, they'd ask, "Where'd you get that funny name, Barack Obama?" Because people just couldn't pronounce it. His ideas about how Kenya should progress often put him at odds with the politics of tribe and patronage, and because he spoke his mind, sometimes to a fault, he ended up being fired from his job and prevented from finding work in the country for many, many years. Americans were originally persuaded by the President to go to war in part because of the threat of weapons of mass destruction, and in part because they were told that it would help reduce the threat of international terrorism. But because of the size, secrecy, and scope of the Soviet biological weapons program, we are still dangerously behind in dealing with this proliferation threat.

American	doc1.txt doc2.txt doc3.txt doc4.txt doc5.txt doc6.txt	It was here, in Springfield, where North, South, East and West come together that I was reminded of the essential decency of the American people - where I came to believe that through this decency, we can build a more hopeful America. It is that promise that has always set this country apart - that through hard work and sacrifice, each of us can pursue our individual dreams but still come together as one American family, to ensure that the next generation can pursue their dreams as well. Because we've always fought to bring all of our people under the blanket of the American Dream. My own city of Chicago has been the home of some of the most corrupt local politics in American history, from patronage machines to questionable elections. Throughout American history, there have been moments that call on us to meet the challenges of an uncertain world, and pay whatever price is required to secure our freedom. But, when I think about what is at stake I am reminded by a quote from the late President Kennedy given in a speech at American University in 1963 about threats posed by the Soviet Union.
Government	doc1.txt doc2.txt doc3.txt doc4.txt doc5.txt doc6.txt	I saw that the problems people faced weren't simply local in nature - that the decision to close a steel mill was made by distant executives; that the lack of textbooks and computers in schools could be traced to the skewed priorities of politicians a thousand miles away; and that when a child turns to violence, there's a hole in his heart no government could ever fill. These challenges are not all of government's making. That even though we may get involved out of civic obligation every few years, we don't always have confidence that government can make a difference in our lives. Like many nations across this continent, where Kenya is failing is in its ability to create a government that is transparent and accountable. Dreams of democracy and hopes for a perfect government are now just that ? And the Kiev story is heading in the right direction - while we were in Ukraine, Dick, through his tireless and personal intervention, was able to achieve a breakthrough with that government, bringing that facility and others under the Cooperative Threat Reduction program.

Should	doc1.txt doc2.txt doc3.txt doc4.txt doc5.txt doc6.txt	After three years of this work, I went to law school, because I wanted to understand how the law should work for those in need. It's a promise that says the market should reward drive and innovation and generate growth, but that businesses should live up to their responsibilities to create American jobs, look out for American workers, and play by the rules of the road. He was talking about what an awful job his own party has done governing this country, and he said that with all the mistakes and misjudgments the Republicans have made over the last six years, the slogan for the Democrats should come down to just two words: His ideas about how Kenya should progress often put him at odds with the politics of tribe and patronage, and because he spoke his mind, sometimes to a fault, he ended up being fired from his job and prevented from finding work in the country for many, many years. The President should announce to the Iraqi people that our policy will include a gradual and substantial reduction in U.S. forces. For my part, I would suggest three important elements that should be included in such a discussion.
Promise	doc2.txt doc4.txt	It is that promise that has always set this country apart - that through hard work and sacrifice, each of us can pursue our individual dreams but still come together as one American family, to ensure that the next generation can pursue their dreams as well. One statistic powerfully describes this unfulfilled promise.
Enough	doc1.txt doc2.txt doc3.txt doc4.txt doc5.txt doc6.txt	But I've been there long enough to know that the ways of Washington must change. Tonight, I say to the American people, to Democrats and Republicans and Independents across this great land - enough! This moment - this election - is our chance to keep, in the 21st century, the American promise alive. She believed that over a span of three centuries, she had seen enough to know that there is no challenge too great, no injustice too crippling, no destiny too far out of reach for America. But elections are not enough. What is absolutely clear is that it is not enough for the President to respond to Iraq's reality by saying that he is "open to" or "interested in" new ideas while acting as if all that's required is doing more of the same. Some weapons experts believe that terrorists are likely to find enough fissile material to build a bomb in the next ten years - and we can imagine with horror what the world will be like if they succeed.

Weapons	doc1.txt doc2.txt doc4.txt doc5.txt doc6.txt	I've worked with Republican Senator Dick Lugar to pass a law that will secure and destroy some of the world's deadliest, unguarded weapons. But I will also renew the tough, direct diplomacy that can prevent Iran from obtaining nuclear weapons and curb Russian aggression. Of course, in the end, one of the strongest weapons your country has against corruption is the ability of you, the people, to stand up and speak out about the injustices you see. Americans were originally persuaded by the President to go to war in part because of the threat of weapons of mass destruction, and in part because they were told that it would help reduce the threat of international terrorism. As some of you know, Senator Lugar and I recently traveled to Russia, Ukraine, and Azerbaijan to witness firsthand both the progress we're making in securing the world's most dangerous weapons, as well as the serious challenges that lie ahead.
Change	doc1.txt doc2.txt doc3.txt doc4.txt doc5.txt	But I've been there long enough to know that the ways of Washington must change. To President Clinton, who last night made the case for change as only he can make it; to Ted Kennedy, who embodies the spirit of service; and to the next Vice President of the United States, Joe Biden, I thank you. Whether it's the war or Katrina or their health care or their jobs, you hear people say that we've finally arrived at a moment where something must change. And I know that the vast majority of people in this country desperately want to change this. and that strategy must change.
Troops	doc1.txt doc2.txt doc3.txt doc5.txt doc6.txt	America, it's time to start bringing our troops home. When John McCain said we could just "muddle through" in Afghanistan, I argued for more resources and more troops to finish the fight against the terrorists who actually attacked us on 9/11, and made clear that we must take out Osama bin Laden and his lieutenants if we have them in our sights. I've had enough of being told that we can't afford body armor for our troops and health care for our veterans and benefits for the wounded heroes who've risked their lives for this country. Iraq is descending into chaos based on ethnic divisions that were around long before American troops arrived. Besides the devastation they can cause to a civilian population, biological agents can also be effective in asymmetrical warfare against U.S. troops.

Americans	doc1.txt doc2.txt doc3.txt doc5.txt	It is because men and women of every race, from every walk of life, continued to march for freedom long after Lincoln was laid to rest, that today we have the chance to face the challenges of this millennium together, as one people - as Americans. Let me express my thanks to the historic slate of candidates who accompanied me on this journey, and especially the one who traveled the farthest - a champion for working Americans and an inspiration to my daughters and to yours -- Hillary Rodham Clinton. These are Americans who still believe in an America where anything's possible - they just don't think their leaders do. Americans were originally persuaded by the President to go to war in part because of the threat of weapons of mass destruction, and in part because they were told that it would help reduce the threat of international terrorism.
Together	doc1.txt doc2.txt doc3.txt doc4.txt doc5.txt doc6.txt	It was here, in Springfield, where North, South, East and West come together that I was reminded of the essential decency of the American people - where I came to believe that through this decency, we can build a more hopeful America. It is that promise that has always set this country apart - that through hard work and sacrifice, each of us can pursue our individual dreams but still come together as one American family, to ensure that the next generation can pursue their dreams as well. Thank you Roger Hickey and Bob Borosage for bringing us all together today and thank you for your leadership in the cause of a more progressive America. Among African nations, Kenya remains a model for representative democracy - a place where many different ethnic factions have found a way to live and work together in peace and stability. For only through this phased redeployment can we send a clear message to the Iraqi factions that the U.S. is not going to hold together this country indefinitely ? Additional steps should also be taken to consolidate and secure dangerous pathogen collections, strengthen bio-reconnaissance networks to provide early warning of bio-attack and natural disease outbreaks, and have our experts work together to develop improved medical countermeasures.

Believe	doc1.txt doc2.txt doc3.txt doc4.txt doc5.txt doc6.txt	It's humbling, but in my heart I know you didn't come here just for me, you came here because you believe in what this country can be. Now, I don't believe that Senator McCain doesn't care what's going on in the lives of Americans. These are Americans who still believe in an America where anything's possible - they just don't think their leaders do. I believe there a number of factors at work. I said then and believe now that Saddam Hussein was a ruthless dictator who craved weapons of mass destruction but posed no imminent threat to the United States; that a war in Iraq would harm, not help, our efforts to defeat al Qaeda and finish the job in Afghanistan; and that an invasion would require an occupation of undetermined length, at undetermined cost, with undetermined consequences. Some weapons experts believe that terrorists are likely to find enough fissile material to build a bomb in the next ten years - and we can imagine with horror what the world will be like if they succeed.
Health	doc1.txt doc2.txt doc3.txt doc4.txt doc6.txt	That's why we were able to give health insurance to children in need. The truth is, on issue after issue that would make a difference in your lives - on health care and education and the economy - Senator McCain has been anything but independent. Whether it's the war or Katrina or their health care or their jobs, you hear people say that we've finally arrived at a moment where something must change. This means that the education and health care systems - issues that my own nation more than 200 years old still struggles with - lag behind, impacting its development. Not to mention the environmental and public health and safety catastrophe that could come from a failure to store and transport these materials safely and securely.
Nation	doc1.txt doc2.txt doc3.txt doc4.txt doc5.txt	In the face of secession, we unified a nation and set the captives free. To Chairman Dean and my great friend Dick Durbin; and to all my fellow citizens of this great nation; And how she watched FDR lift this nation out of fear and send millions to college on the GI Bill and lift millions out of poverty with Social Security. In many ways, he embodied the new Africa of the early Sixties, a man who had obtained the knowledge of the Western world, and sought to bring it back home, where he hoped he could help create a new nation. They are the soul-trying times our forbearers spoke of, when the ease of complacency and self-interest must give way to the more difficult task of rendering judgment on what is best for the nation and for posterity, and then acting on that judgment ?

Security	doc2.txt doc3.txt doc5.txt doc6.txt	How else could he offer a health care plan that would actually tax people's benefits, or an education plan that would do nothing to help families pay for college, or a plan that would privatize Social Security and gamble your retirement? And how she watched FDR lift this nation out of fear and send millions to college on the GI Bill and lift millions out of poverty with Social Security. 300,000 Iraqi security forces have supposedly been recruited and trained over the last two years, and yet American troop levels have not been reduced by a single soldier. We entered through no fences or discernible security, and once we did, we found ourselves in a building with open first-floor windows and padlocks that many of us would not use to secure our own luggage.
President	doc1.txt doc2.txt doc3.txt doc5.txt doc6.txt	And that is why, in the shadow of the Old State Capitol, where Lincoln once called on a divided house to stand together, where common hopes and common dreams still, I stand before you today to announce my candidacy for President of the United States. To President Clinton, who last night made the case for change as only he can make it; to Ted Kennedy, who embodies the spirit of service; and to the next Vice President of the United States, Joe Biden, I thank you. And so I am eager to have this argument not just with the President, but the entire Republican Party over what this country is about. Americans were originally persuaded by the President to go to war in part because of the threat of weapons of mass destruction, and in part because they were told that it would help reduce the threat of international terrorism. But, when I think about what is at stake I am reminded by a quote from the late President Kennedy given in a speech at American University in 1963 about threats posed by the Soviet Union.
Against	doc1.txt doc2.txt doc3.txt doc4.txt doc5.txt doc6.txt	But let us also understand that ultimate victory against our enemies will come only by rebuilding our alliances and exporting those ideals that bring hope and opportunity to millions around the globe. Our government should work for us, not against us. You know, we all remember that George Bush said in 2000 campaign that he was against nation-building. It stacks the deck so high against entrepreneurs that they cannot get their job-creating ideas off the ground. And so the question is not whether there is some magic formula for success, or guarantee against failure, in Iraq. Today, experts tell us that we're in a race against time to prevent this scenario from unfolding.
